THE DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

3 January 1977

Dr. Leo Cherne
Chairman
President's Foreign Intelligence
Advisory Board
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Leo:

This is just a brief note to tell you of my personal admiration for PFIAB's report to the President on "Intelligence for the Future." Though there are a few places here and there where a bit of a debate could ensue, it is my belief that it is a very constructive and helpful report and one around which the Community can plan a good deal of its future.

Let me also express to you and to other members of the Board CIA's best wishes for a good and solid 1977.

Faithfully yours,
